Event Liability Insurance Program

Anytime you get people together for an event, you are exposed to risk. Whether it is someone falling and becoming injured, a guest developing food poisoning from your catered offerings, or property damage to a hosting venue, the risks are real. Successful event organizers recognize that event insurance is a necessary part of the planning process and don't take risks when it comes to the possibility of large payouts commonly associated with liability lawsuits. Specific event insurance coverage and risk management can help avoid the negative outcomes that result from some events.

As an industry expert in event liability risk, Marsh Canada Limited (Marsh) administers the Event Liability Insurance Program to help meet the unique risk coverage requirements of event organizers and facility users across Canada.

Benefits

- Online application process allows quotes to be generated, accepted, and paid for online using a credit card at www.marsh.ca/event-insurance-quote.
- Capability to insure a variety of event types, big and small.
- Experienced service team to provide advice regarding risk management and suitable coverage.
- Broad acceptance criteria.

Coverage and Optional Extensions

The Event Liability Insurance Program features a liability limit of up to $10,000,000 and provides an extensive range of broad coverages that can be tailored to meet each event's specific risks and exposures including:

- Midway Rides/Inflatables/Fireworks – Liability and/or Vicarious Liability arising out of the use of the before mentioned activities.
- Vendor Coverage – Provides coverage to vendors for products that are sold in the regular course of business during your event.
- Liquor Liability – Protects you from liability that may arise at your event where alcohol is being served.

When to Insure

In general, events should be covered under the Event Liability Insurance Program when:

- You are responsible for the overall control of the event or activity.
- Attended by third parties such as guests, participants, spectators, property owners, or others.
- Alcohol is being served.
- The event venue/facility requires the purchase of event insurance.
